Even as we join family and friends in the traditional holiday feast, we should remember that this day has been set aside for us to do officially the very thing we should be doing every day of our lives: thanking God for our blessings. We have so many, regardless of our own situation, that we cannot begin to count them all; not only the tangible things we can see all around us, but also the invisble blessings, such as the misfortunes we have been spared. Go to your Church every Sunday and give your thanks to God for all of them. The Pilgrims were grateful for so little; and you have so much.
